Ultra Electronics, Nuclear Sensors & Process Instrumentation (Weed Instrument) Receives HAF604 Certification.

Ultra Electronics, Nuclear Sensors & Process Instrumentation, a business name of Weed Instrument Co., Inc., has received the necessary certification to supply critical Class 1E and non classified temperature detectors for civil nuclear equipment in China from the country's National Nuclear Safety Administration.

All overseas companies must obtain certification, formally known as a "Letter of Confirmation on the Registration in the People's Republic of China of Overseas Organizations Associated with Civil Nuclear Safety Equipment", or HAF604 Certification, before they can work with civil nuclear safety equipment in China.

Ultra Electronics, Nuclear Sensors & Process Instrumentation is one of the first foreign nuclear power instrumentation companies to receive the Letter of Confirmation.
