New Trading Name for Weed Instrument

In November 2008, Weed Instrument Co., Inc was acquired by Ultra Electronics Holdings plc. Ultra Electronics, which employs over 3,000 people worldwide, focuses on high integrity sensing, control, communication and display systems with an emphasis on integrated Information Technology solutions. The Group concentrates on obtaining a technological edge in niche markets, with many of its products and technologies being market leaders in their field. For additional information on Ultra Electronics, please visit: www.ultra-electronics.com

There have been no personnel or organizational changes at Weed Instrument as a result of the acquisition and the company continues to operate from its Round Rock, Texas facility. While the legal name of Weed Instrument Co., Inc. is being retained, to leverage the global brand of Ultra Electronics, the trading name of Weed Instrument and its website address have been changed to:

Ultra Electronics, Nuclear Sensors & Process Instrumentation
